

THE ONTARIO TEXTBOOK AND TECHNOLOGY GRANT

Ontario's new, annual Textbook and Technology Grant will help full-time community college and university students pay for textbooks and computer costs.

In the 2008-09 academic year, the grant is $150. The amount of the annual grant will increase to $300 per year when fully implemented.

WHO IS ELIGIBLE?

To receive the Textbook and Technology Grant, you must meet the following criteria:

- You are enrolled full-time at a community college or university in Ontario. You are considered to be full-time if you are enrolled in a minimum of 60 per cent of a full course load, or 40 per cent if you are a student with a permanent disability.
- You are a Canadian citizen, a permanent resident of Canada, or a protected person.

For more details on eligibility, visit ontario.ca/OSAP.

HOW TO APPLY

Full-time community college and university students who apply for OSAP for 2008-09 will automatically be considered for the grant.

If you are an eligible full-time student who is not receiving OSAP, you will need to complete a short online application.

To apply, visit ontario.ca/OSAP.

If you are studying for one term only, you must submit your application within the first 30 days of your study period. If you are studying for two or three terms, you must apply no later than 90 days before the end of your study period.

HAVE QUESTIONS?

For more information about the Textbook and Technology Grant, check out ontario.ca/OSAP.
